Nearly 100 Boys Attended County Camp for Scouts

Most Successful Season Closed August 20—Much Credit Due Kiwanis and Rotary for Improved Road.

Camp Mikanakawa, the Boy Scout camp of Ulster county, ran for six weeks as scheduled and closed the most successful season in its history on August 20. There were nearly one hundred boys in attendance which represents an increase of 35 per cent over 1928, 134 per cent over 1927. Many factors entered into the success of the camp this year. The camp site itself has been declared one of the best in this section. It is secluded and yet easily reached. The twenty acres provide enough land so that the boys have no desire to trespass on other property. The new road provided through the generosity of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs and the Ulster County Council, B. S. A., made the camp easy of access and practically insured the success of the whole camp project. The water front cannot be excelled.

The weather conditions were ideal for camping as there was very little rain. The diving platform provided by the American Legion of Kingston, the two new boats given by the American Legion of Saugerties, the Ford truck donated by Mr. Van Voorhis of New York city, the boat dock built by S. J. Messenger, the boys for the tents and the cars loaned by the Army authorities all contributed towards the success of the camp.

No serious accidents occurred, although numerous bumps and bruises called for first-aid treatment. There was no serious illness though now and then a case of stomach ache or headache was reported; probably due to excess of candy, cake, etc., brought in by boys from the home base.

A large number of boys were taught to swim, the swimming conditions being ideal. While the water is rather deep, the beginners were provided for by the crib. This was so popular that the best swimmers had to be kept from using it.

Regular instruction periods were held daily and many boys passed their tests in Scouting. Numerous games of baseball were played with visiting teams from nearby camps and villages. The evening camp fires were very popular. The boys sometimes provided their own entertainment but now and then it was furnished by an outsider. Fred Van Deusen delighted the boys with his magic at one time. Mr. Marks of Rose and Gorman's store demonstrated some of the wrestling holds on two occasions. Sidney K. Clapp gave a talk on trees and Mr. Finkle, connected with the U. S. Army, gave a travel talk, which was greatly enjoyed.

Many of the boys earned their camp emblem, a large felt letter "M". These will be awarded later.

The leadership of the camp was excellent. Edwin J. Messenger, a Kingston boy, now attending the United States Military Academy at West Point, proved a popular and efficient leader in swimming and athletics. George Kenny, teacher in the Kingston High School, rendered fine service; Donald H. Smith was assistant to the director. W. M. Wiseman, of New Paltz, served his third year as chief. He was very popular with the boys, which was not to be wondered at, for he certainly pleased them with his cooking. Howard N. Smith, the Scout Executive of Ulster county, was the director of the camp.

Already plans for a bigger and better camp for 1930 are under way. The camp committee desires to thank any and all who helped to make the 1929 camp a success.

MARAUDERS KILL SEVERAL RESIDENTS OF SAN JUAN.

Mexico City, Aug. 23 (AP).—Travelers arriving at Torreón, Coahuila, from San Juan de Guadalupe, Durango, today said the chief of police of San Juan and several residents were killed and others wounded in an attack by marauders.

The attack was said to have occurred Saturday night when seven men raced into the Central Plaza in an automobile, firing at random. At the same time a hundred men appeared, shooting down pedestrians.

After several hours' looting the marauders freed the inmates of the jail, killing the police chief, and then departed, carrying off several prisoners who were set free a few miles from town.

Excelsior said the attackers shouted "Viva Martin Trujillo," the name of the Agrarista leader who formerly was military commander at San Juan but who recently was removed due to the protests of inhabitants. San Juan at present is without a military garrison.

Kaiser's Brother-in-Law a Walker.

London, Aug. 23 (AP).—A Brasseur dispatch to the Daily Mail today said Alexander Subkov, the Russian dancer who married Princess Victoria, sister of the former Kaiser, now is employed as a waiter in a restaurant at Lauenburg. The owner of the restaurant was said to be making his fortune as a waiter to the trade fair now in progress crowded the tables served by Subkov for the privilege of being waited upon by the former Emperor's brother-in-law.

Zeppelin Starts On Trans-Pacific Trip of 5,470 Miles

Dr. Eckener Hopes to Make the Journey in 100 Hours—Carries 18 Passengers and a Crew of 41.

Kasumigaura, Japan, Aug. 23 (AP).—Turning its nose eastward for the first flight of an airship over the Pacific ocean, the Graf Zeppelin left here at 3:13 P. M. (1:13 A. M. E. S. T.) for Los Angeles.

For hours a north wind which made removal from the hanger dangerous had delayed the giant dirigible. Shortly after noon, however, the north wind died down. In view of the unexpected improvement in weather conditions Dr. Hugo Eckener, master, ordered passengers aboard and had the ground crew take its place.

The dirigible was drawn from the hanger without mishap within a few minutes and at 3:13 p. m. was released into the air. It made directly for the northeast and in seven minutes had disappeared into the direction of the open Pacific.

Aboard were a crew of 41, including one new member, and a passenger list of nineteen, a total of 60 persons. The new member of the crew was the chief engineer, Karl Beutler, who came here to supervise arrangements for the Zeppelin's voyage.

In addition to the sixteen passengers who arrived here from Friedrichshafen on the airship with tickets leading to Lakehurst three new passengers were aboard. Lieutenant Commander Rymnosuke Kusaka of the Japanese naval general staff; Doto Hiraoka, Japanese news agency representative, and Major Shinichi Shibata, of the general staff of the army. They replaced four others who left the ship here after the trip from Friedrichshafen.

Ahead of the Graf Zeppelin lay a course of some 5,470 miles which Dr. Eckener expected to cover in close to 100 hours, a schedule which, if adhered to, would bring the Zeppelin to Los Angeles at 2:13 a. m. Pacific time Tuesday (5:13 a. m. E. S. T.). It was easily possible the Zeppelin would exceed this and arrive at Los Angeles Monday evening.

The course, broadly speaking, lay northward from here to south of the Aleutian Islands, where the turn southward toward Seattle, Wash., would be made. From Seattle it was planned to cruise southward along the Pacific coast to Los Angeles. Dr. Eckener made it plain, however, he would vary his itinerary according to the weather conditions he encountered.

From Los Angeles Dr. Eckener planned to fly to Lakehurst, N. J., completing the round-the-world trip he began there Wednesday night, August 7, at 10:39 p. m. Arrival at Lakehurst should be toward the end of next week, if two or three days are spent at Los Angeles for refueling and the like.

Zeppelin Making 100 Miles an Hour

Tokyo, Aug. 23 (AP).—The American-bound Graf Zeppelin wireless her position at 10 p. m. Tokyo time (8 a. m. E. S. T.) as 35.40 north latitude and 147.40 east longitude, or about 400 miles east of Tokyo, her speed apparently being about 100 miles an hour.

Latest reports from the Graf Zeppelin showing her position 400 miles east of Tokyo indicate she is heading boldly into the vast spaces of the Pacific instead of skirting the islands to the north along the great circle route.

Dr. Eckener is exercising the same keen insight regarding weather conditions that has characterized his previous flights and although he faces more mileage on the more southerly course, unfavorable weather to the north will be avoided.

The Graf's position at present is on the direct Tokyo-San Francisco steamship route. This lies halfway between the great circle route and the line from Tokyo to Hawaii.

San Francisco, Aug. 23 (AP).—A weather report indicating that favorable weather conditions were developing over the great circle route, the announced course of the Graf Zeppelin as she left Tokyo, was broadcast to Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the air liner, by the United States Weather Bureau today.

MAKES SECOND START ON MOSCOW TO NEW YORK TRIP

Moscow, Aug. 23 (AP).—Semen Shestakov, Russian aviator, who crashed near Chita, Siberia, on an attempted Moscow to New York flight, left here at 3 a. m. (8 p. m. E. S. T. Thursday) on a new attempt to reach America by the same route. He planned several stops, the first possibly at Krasnoyarsk, 2,000 miles away.

His plane is called the Land of the Soviets. It has two engines of 1,200 horsepower.

On August 8 at 3 a. m., the first airplane Land of the Soviets started from Moscow to New York, but crashed in the wilds of Siberia near Chita on August 8. The plane was considerably damaged but the crew escaped injury.

Fire Damaged Worthwell Store

Store in Mazon Building on Lower Broadway Damaged by Fire of Unknown Origin Thursday Night—Fire Discovered Half Hour After Store Closed.

About half an hour after the Worthwell Store in the Mazon building on lower Broadway had been closed for business, fire was discovered in the store and an alarm turned in from Box 25, to which the fire department responded. The fire was confined to the interior of the store, working its way up through a skylight and spreading over the ceiling. The store is owned by Colman Schwartz. The origin of the fire is not known.

According to the fire department the fire evidently started between some counters in the rear of the place where it was first seen, but its prompt discovery prevented what might have proven a costly fire. Cornell Hose was the first fire company on the scene and was quickly followed by the pumper from the Central Fire Station, Rapid Hose and Union Hose.

Five lines of hose were stretched, but it was not found necessary to use all of the lines. Almost directly over where the fire started is a skylight and the firemen, breaking the skylight, ran a line of hose down the skylight and played it on the fire. The fire made a dense smoke which filled the store.

The turning in of an alarm of fire from Box 25 brought out a large crowd of spectators, and trolley traffic was tied up for nearly 15 minutes. The alarm was turned in at 8:40 o'clock and the fire was out at 9:45 o'clock.

SEIZE GAMBLING APPARATUS IN RAID ON HALF WAY HOUSE

Troy, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP).—Troopers raided the Half Way House, situated on the state highway midway between Glens Falls and Lake George, and confiscated a large quantity of gambling paraphernalia early today. They also seized $1,300 in cash, and a number of patrons of the Half Way House, most of whom were visitors from Saratoga Springs, where they were attending the August racing meet.

The Half Way House was raided several days ago by Troopers and Alexander Patnode, the proprietor, was arrested on a charge of conducting a gambling house. At a hearing before a justice of the peace the Lieutenant in charge of the raid testified that the Troopers did not have a search warrant but made the raid on the order of a superior officer. He also testified that he did not see the gambling apparatus in operation and that he did not see Patnode pay or collect any bets. The case was dismissed and the apparatus ordered returned to Patnode.

FRENCH RADICAL DENOUNCES STALIN'S "RED PARADISE"

Paris, Aug. 23 (AP).—The French radical Paul Marion has resigned from the Communist party in which he rose to the rank of chief of the propaganda and agitation section of the central executive committee.

M. Marion lived in Russia from November, 1927, until February, 1929. His resignation is a scorching denunciation of Josef Stalin's "Red Paradise."

In Russia Marion said he found the doctrine of proletarian dictatorship served to conceal "the most cruel desolating reality." "The government of the Soviets is merely the domination of caste of several thousands of Bureaucrats of all kinds and sizes from Stalin down to the last village correspondent, over the country they keep in economic and misery by their absolute and inquisitorial dictatorship, which will become worse as the years go by."

ASKED TO TAKE WAGE REDUCTION OF 6.41 PER CENT.

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 23 (AP).—Lancashire cotton mill workers were asked today to accept a reduction of 6.41 per cent in their wages, just half what their employers sought more than a month ago to impose.

The arbitration court, appointed last week when the workers went back to their jobs after remaining away three weeks, required only two days to arrive at its findings.

Its five members agreed the cotton industry was in an exceedingly depressed condition and needed an immediate palliative. They were not sure, however, that a wage reduction was the proper cure for the depression.

It was believed both employers and employees would accept the new scale.

Fancy Chickens Fatten En Route.

Mexico City, Aug. 23 (AP).—The Department of Agriculture announced today that in the future highly bred chickens it imports from the United States for breeding purposes will be brought from Brownsville, Texas, by air mail. When imported by train chickens frequently have been killed and eaten en route, the announcement added.

Auto Leaves Road—One Killed.

Elk Rapids, Mich., Aug. 23 (AP).—Five young persons were killed and two others injured early today as their automobile left the road three miles north of here and struck a tree.

Plans for Exchange of Electric Co. Stock

The plan of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation to exchange stock with the Niagara Hudson Power Corporation has been approved and stockholders in the Central Hudson have been informed as to the method that is being taken to effect the exchange.

The principal features of the plan are that the authorized common stock of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation will be increased to 2,000,000 shares without par value, of which 1,500,000 shares will be presently issued, as follows:

(1) An increase, or split-up, in the ratio of three and one-half (3½) for one (1), of the present number of shares of common stock of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation, issued and to be issued upon completion of pending stock subscriptions, and an exchange by you of one-seventh of such increased number of shares (1, e. at the rate of one-half, ½, share for each such three and one-half, 3½, shares) for common stock of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation in the ratio of one and two-thirds (1 2/3) shares of said Niagara Hudson Power Corporation common stock for each new share of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation common stock so exchanged (1, e. five-sixths, 5/6, share of such Niagara Hudson Power Corporation common stock for each such one-half, ½, share of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation common stock).

(2) In addition to the stock of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation to be acquired by Niagara Hudson Power Corporation through exchange of shares, Niagara Hudson Power Corporation will purchase directly from Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation 187,500 shares of its increased common stock at a price of $40 per share in cash. Niagara Hudson Power Corporation will in this manner have acquired approximately 25 per cent of the common stock of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation then to be outstanding.

The plan, it is announced, does not contemplate any change in the present management of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation, and the common stock of that corporation acquired by the Niagara Hudson under the plan will be deposited under the voting trust under which upwards of 92 per cent of the common stock of the Central Hudson is already deposited. The voting trust will be extended for a further period of five years. Niagara Hudson will be invited to nominate an additional voting trustee and two members of the board of directors.

Method of Depositing.

Holders of common stock of the Corporation, and holders of voting trust certificates representing common stock of the Corporation, are to become parties to said Agreement by depositing their stock certificates, or voting trust certificates, on or before October 1, 1929, or such later date as the Committee may determine, with the Depository under said Agreement, together with a written acceptance of said Plan and authorization to the Committee signed by the record holders of said deposited certificates, which will cover also the rights of such Depositors with respect to stock and voting trust certificates issuable on account of uncompleted stock subscriptions. All certificates of stock, and all voting trust certificates, so deposited must be assigned in blank.

For the convenience of stockholders the following banks and trust companies have been selected for the deposit of stock and voting trust certificates, as agents for the Irving Trust Company of New York city, which has been appointed the depository for the committee: The Highland National Bank and Trust Company of Newburgh; The First National Bank of Poughkeepsie; the Kingston Trust Company of Kingston; and the Tanners National Bank of Catskill.

Two Automobile Cases in Court

John Henion Pleaded Guilty to Helping Sell to Silverburg's Car and Is Jailed for 30 Days—Carney Hearing Adjourned.

William Carney of 186 Third avenue, was arrested on Thursday by Sergeant Simpson on a warrant sworn out by Sidney Greene of 28 Janet street, who charged Carney with reckless driving. This morning in police court the hearing was adjourned to next Wednesday morning.

Carney's arrest grew out of a collision last Tuesday between his automobile and a motorcycle driven by Greene, in which the motorcycle was damaged and Greene received an injury to his leg. The collision occurred near the Central Post Office on Broadway.

Two Killed in Rock Fall.

Gunnison, Col., Aug. 23 (AP).—Two men were killed and seven others were injured for a short time by a rock fall in the Crested Butte Coal Company mine at Smith Hall, near here, last night.

Reparation Plan Hangs in Balance

New Offer Gives Great Britain 75 Per Cent of the Excess Asked By Snowden.

The Hague, Aug. 23 (AP).—The reparation plan evolved by the Young committee of financial experts at Paris hung in the balance today, with indications that by tonight the conference of the governments here to make it effective would have determined upon acceptance or rejection.

With Philip Snowden, British chancellor of the exchequer, it seemed, rested final decision, much as it has from the start of the conference, when his uncompromising stand for a larger share for Great Britain of German reparation payments threw the conference into the stalemate from which it has never emerged.

For the second time since the conference started more than a fortnight ago the remaining creditor nations, France, Italy, Belgium, and Japan, have acquiesced partially in his demand. Should Mr. Snowden agree to this second offer, made yesterday after arduous shoving and paring, the conference may end Saturday in a blaze of apparent good will and international relief.

What seemed more likely was that the British chancellor, determined upon the righteousness of his claims, would find the second offer quite as insufficient as the first, and would reject it, just as he did before. In this event a final meeting of the conference with some speeches by heads of the national delegations seeking to minimize significance of the conference breakdown was looked for.

The new offer of Italy, Belgium, Japan, and France to Great Britain, by the estimate of those nations, would give Great Britain 75 per cent of the 48,000,000 marks annually in excess of the Young plan allotment asked by her.

CREVICE NEAR AMSTERDAM SEQUEL TO EARTHQUAKE

Amsterdam, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP).—A subterranean upheaval, believed to be a sequel to the earthquake of August 12, today opened a crevice 30 feet long and six feet wide from which water gushed near the Mohawk Valley state highway and the New York Central railroad tracks at Hoffman's, a few miles east of here.

No one saw the ground open, nor was there any report of earth tremors. The crevice, the depth of which was not known, was discovered by New York Central railroad employees about 7 a. m. Five hours later the water had subsided and construction crews were preparing to fill the hole.

In the meantime, trains crossing from the West Shore division to the main line of the New York Central over the railroad bridge spanning the Mohawk from Rotterdam to Hoffman's proceeded at reduced speed.

Since the earth shocks of August 12 reports have been received from various parts of the state of hidden springs finding an outlet to the surface.

CHICAGO HAS HOTTEST AUGUST 22 RECORDED.

Chicago, Aug. 23 (AP).—A sudden heat wave which swept over the middle west from the south and southwest sent temperatures soaring and left this section of the country gasping for breath today.

Chicago, with 93 degrees, experienced the warmest weather of the summer and the hottest August 22 in the history of the United States Weather Bureau. The rise was freakishly abrupt, the mercury being sent up 11 degrees in two hours in the afternoon. Two persons died here after being overcome by the heat. Three drowned.

Keokuk, Iowa, and St. Louis registered 98 degrees to be the hottest places in this section, but were hard pressed by Springfield, Ill., with 96 degrees, and Peoria, Ill., with 94 degrees.

PENNSYLVANIA TOURISTS DROWNED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Montreal, Aug. 23 (AP).—Arrangements were being made to send today to West Chester, Pa., the bodies of five tourists who were drowned when their automobile plunged into the Soulages Canal, 38 miles from here, on the Montreal-Toronto highway.

The victims were Cecil Chubb, 45, Mrs. Chubb, their daughter, Elizabeth, 22, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dale, all of West Chester. The Chubb car was traveling toward Montreal when it was struck by a car driven by Jacob Zielbauer, of Pittsburgh. The impact caused the Chubb car to slide off the narrow, slippery road into the canal.

The bodies were not recovered until two hours later when the car was raised with the aid of a diver. All five were found inside the car.

Appointed Notaries.

William J. Burns and Grace Forman, both of the village of Rosendale, have been appointed notaries in and for the county of Ulster. Certificate of their appointment has been filed in the office of the county clerk.

Finds General Revision in Tariff Bills

Senator Borah Sees Little Difference Between House and Senate Bills So Far as Agriculture Is Concerned.

Washington, Aug. 23 (AP).—Opponents of the tariff bill passed by the House and rewritten by the Republicans of the Senate Finance Committee claimed the spotlight today as the lines of their impending attack on the measure became more and more clearly defined.

The Democrats of the committee were called to begin their study of the measure in preparation for the organized efforts of the Senate minority to block many of the rate increases proposed, while leaders of the Republican independent group were on record with statements expressing their dissatisfaction.

Apparently reflecting the views of a number of his fellow Democrats, Senator McKellar of Tennessee holds that "whether you take the House bill or the Senate Bill, it is a general tariff revision and in no sense limited, as requested by the President."

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, has made it clear that he has not changed his stand in opposition to general revision. Asserting that the object of the special session was to act without delay to "restore economic equality to agriculture," he said:

"My examination of the bill reported by the Senate Finance Committee convinces me that there is very little difference between the two bills insofar as they affect agriculture. If either bill (the Committee bill or the House bill) is passed, agriculture will suffer the same inequality, the same injustice that we were pledged to remedy."

He declared that "those who have the interest of agriculture at heart and those who believe that the pledges made ought to be kept, are in duty bound to endeavor to change this bill in the Senate."

Adirondack Fire Under Control

The Glen, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP).—A forest fire which had raged for 24 hours a short distance northeast of here was brought under control today but 100 fire fighters continued to battle scattered blazes while they scanned the sky for rain, forecast for today and expected to extinguish the fire.

Between 350 and 400 acres were swept by the fire and valuable timber, mostly spruce and pine, was destroyed.

No estimate of the loss had yet been made. Most of the land burned over was owned by McPhillips Brothers, a lumbering firm with headquarters at Friends Lake, but several acres of state-owned forest land were included in the blackened area.

The fire was discovered early yesterday morning on state land by J. H. Adams, fire observer stationed on Crane Mountain. Adams broadcast the alarm and fire rangers, volunteers from nearby towns and the crews of several logging camps rushed to the spot where they battled the fire through yesterday and last night under direction of Chief Fire Warden P. J. Cunningham of North Creek. The burned area is on Spruce mountain, more familiarly known to mountaineers and tourists as Huckleberry mountain.

While the forest fire was at its height a separate fire destroyed a saw mill here, owned by McPhillips Brothers, with loss estimated at $25,000. The saw mill fire threatened for a time to spread to nearby summer hotels and guests made preparations for hurried departure, but firemen from Glens Falls, North Creek and Warrensburg checked the spread of the flames though they were unable to save the mill.

Boy of 10 Kills Chum With Rifle.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 23 (AP).—A boyhood quarrel between chums, resulting when one teased the other about "the girls," ended fatally for Leo Sica, 16, when Donald Willie, 10, shot and killed him with a rifle which he thought was unloaded. Donald told authorities he obtained the rifle "just to scare Leo."

Here's a Chance at $25,000.

Calcutta, India, Aug. 23 (AP).—Habibullah Khan, who was reported here to have become desperate under the harrassing on three fronts by the disputant to his throne, Nadir Khan, has offered $25,000 (about $25,000) reward for Nadir Khan's capture, dead or alive.

Again excellent weather greeted the forty-first annual Ulster County Fair at Ellenville Thursday, and as a result, there was a good crowd, said by State Troopers who are in charge of the parking to be a larger crowd than on any previous day.

Although the fair officials evidently overlooked Kingston and vicinity in placing signs announcing the fair, there were a number of people from Kingston and southern Ulster present. While the Dutchess county fair has been posted even to the gates of Ellenville the Ulster county fair officials have erected few signs outside a small radius about Ellenville.

Several excellent exhibits mark the fair this year. While the fruit and vegetable exhibits are not large, there is a most excellent display of flowers in the flower tent just below the main exhibition building. The display of flowers is one which must interest everyone who visits the fair. Then too, there is an exceptionally fine display of sheep and cattle.

As for entertainment the fair officials have provided everything which might be expected. While the fakers spin their wheels and the "three balls for a dime" man calls upon the crowd to "knock 'em off and get a box of candy or a doll," the clash of the merry-go-round and the hum of the other attractions call the younger folks. There are thrills aplenty for the children and the grown ups may spend their money and take a chance at winning almost anything that they like.

Thursday was marked by two races which provided the crowd with some excitement. In the third heat of the 2:18 pace there was a mix-up between the drivers of Chinky Pin and Little Napoleon as they got off. The drivers came together on the first turn and both were thrown and the horses became mixed up, but fortunately no one was injured. The spill came after the two horses had each taken a third and fourth position in the previous heats. "Unable to continue the race the third money was divided between the two drivers."

In the 2:18 trot there were eleven entries but five were scratched, leaving Daveta Guy, L. H. Durland, Poughkeepsie, Eta Rico, E. D. Ackerman, New York city; Geraldine Volo, J. T. Kegan, Orangeburg; Peter Port, Gus Munz, Flushing, L. I.; Pretty Polly, B. T. Clarke, Woodbourne and Doctor Randall of Frank Osborne, Monticello. The result of the race which went off in smooth order, was:

Daveta Guy	3	4	4
Eta Rico	5	5	4
Geraldine Volo	1	1	1
Peter Port	5	6	6
Pretty Polly	4	3	3
Doctor Randall	2	2	2

First money, Geraldine Volo; second, Doctor Randall; third, Pretty Polly. Time: 2:15; 2:15 1/4; 2:16. Geraldine Volo came down twice ahead of the pole horse in the first heat instead of in second position as required and Lloyd Hallenbeck, starter, warned the driver that another time would mean a fine of $10. Geraldine Volo crossed the wire in third place on the next start but ahead of the pole horse and a fine of $10 was imposed. The crowd in the stand did not agree with the starter and passed some uncompromising remarks in regard to the imposing of the fine and asked why he had not caused the pole horse to come down. However the starter held to his decision and the fine was not suspended.

In the 2:18 pace there were ten entered and six started. The first heat was a close one and gave the crowd a thrill which brought everyone to his feet. Fortune Volo and Shaw Direct supplied the thrill when they came under the wire neck and neck after a poor start. The entries were Chinky Pin, Max Rapp, Newburgh; Shaw Direct, George Molloy, Middletown; Allen J. A. Monzo, Patterson, N. J.; Little Napoleon, John Stinson, Hartford; Fortune Volo, Gus Munz, Flushing, L. I.; Joe Baron, W. H. Lawrence, Jeffersonville. The result of the race:

Shaw Direct	2	2	2
Chinky Pin	3	4	4
Allen J.	5	6	6
Little Napoleon	4	3	3
Joe Baron	5	5	5

Fortune Volo won first money, Shaw Direct second money and third money was divided between Chinky Pin and Little Napoleon after they withdrew following a spill. Time: 2:15; 2:15 1/4; 2:18.

At the conclusion of the races California Frank's rodeo went on as scheduled although California Frank performed under difficulties having injured his arm the previous day when he was thrown by a wild steer. The rodeo is a feature on the program and the exhibition of fancy roping, trick and fancy riding by the

Was a Slave, Rests In Arlington

Washington, Aug. 23 (AP)—The War Department lifted the ban against civilian burials in Arlington Cemetery long enough today to permit "Uncle Jim" Parks to begin his long sleep of death in that reservation, where he spent his life as a negro slave boy, a freed slave, an aging worker and a guide.

A slave of George Washington Parke Custis, the adopted son of George Washington and father-in-law of Robert E. Lee, he saw the battle tides of the Civil War roll over the wooded hillsides and fields where he played as a boy, saw the combs "stacked like cordwood" after Manassas. Then, puzzled and aging, his sad old eyes watched the ever increasing waves of white headstones roll farther and farther through the lanes and glades of Arlington "estate" as the nation buried its heroes of that and later wars. For almost 90 years the place was home to him: He was born there, played and toiled and was married there in the crinoline days of his half forgotten past. He was "fussed at" by Major Custis, ran errands for "Miss Mary" and bowed low to the stately figure of her husband, General Robert E. Lee.

The guns of war spoke soon after he, with the rest of some 500 slaves, had been freed by the will of their master. Blue clad soldiers came to the plantation, and the spurred boots of their officers rang discord through the quiet house that had been Lee's home.

Time brought progress and more wars and more changes. But "Uncle Jim" stayed on. Lately, physical incapacity has kept him from the places he loved best, but he has dreamed more poignantly than ever of the proud days of lace and laven, forgetting, perhaps, at times the changes personified in the children of his children, five of whom served with the A. E. F. during the World War.

He never wanted to leave his "home." And by the War Department ruling, he never will, his grave being sealed and hallowed with a salute of soldiers' guns.

Police Banquet Here Saturday

Saturday afternoon the Kingston Patrolmen's Association will be hosts for representatives of the police departments of New York, Newburgh, Poughkeepsie, Middletown, Port Jervis and Beacon, at a banquet at the West Shore Hotel on Railroad avenue. The banquet is held as a get-together meeting to discuss the action taken at the recent state conference of policemen held at Syracuse. Officer Peter Keresman, president of the local association, will preside, and those who attended the state conference will speak on various phases of police work that was taken up.

MRS. MALLORY COMES BACK, DEFEATS BETTY NUTHALL

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP)—Just when Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory seemed fading from the picture as a contender for major tennis honors, she came back with a smashing, straight-set victory over Betty Nuthall in the quarter finals of the National Women's championship.

It may be that the familiar surroundings served as an inspiration to call forth some of the super tennis that marked her heyday, for Molla has won this championship oftener than any other player in the world, and always is at her best on the famous turf of the West Side Stadium.

Although able to outdrive and outmaneuver the English girl, who had been figured to give Miss Willis a hard battle, Mrs. Mallory was given only a slight chance to stop Miss Willis today. The champion has lost only two games in four matches in the tournament. Yesterday she smothered Mrs. Peggy Mitchell of England, 6-1.

The California marvel and Mrs. Mallory have met often, but Helen has held the Indian sign over the older woman since 1923, when she dethroned her in two quick sets in the final of the National championship tournament.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Aug. 23 (AP)—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets)—The wholesale market was in a chaotic condition today on asparagus, lettuce and romaine. Supplies were far in excess of trade requirements and the price obtained as a whole was of less importance than that of finding buyers. Sales on crates of two dozen heads of Big Boston lettuce and romaine were consummated chiefly around 50 cents.

Up-state green peas were in lighter receipt. However, the values showed no material change. The demand continued limited. Bushel baskets of the very best offerings sold at $1.25 @ $1.50. Colorado peas packed in crates of about 45 pounds realized $1.75 @ $2.50.

Fancy cucumbers met a ready sale in a steady market.

Arrivals from this state were moderate. Wholesale business on bushel baskets was transacted at $2 @ $2.75 and on dills at $2.50 @ $3.25.

Last week this state started 26 carloads of cucumbers to terminal markets, as against one carload the week before.

The market continued very dull on celery. Receipts were moderate but the outlet was exceedingly limited. The very best stock in the rough from the western part of the state peddled out at $2 @ $2.25 per two-thirds crate.

Cauliflower was in fair supply from the Catskill mountain area. Fancy large sold well at a slight price advance. Jobbing business on No. 1 offerings was consummated at $3 @ $3.50. Some strictly fancy, reached $4. Colorado cauliflower ranged from $1.25 @ $2.25.

State tomatoes were more plentiful. Prices were sustained on extra fancy ripe but tended downward on green stock. Carriers of six four-quart baskets changed hands as high as $3.25. Western New York's best green tomatoes did not command more than $2.

Increased supplies combined with a less active demand resulted in lower prices and a weaker market on spinach. State shipments packed in business crises at basket markets looked out cloudy at $1 @ $1.50. The market was slightly firmer on strictly fancy tender beans.

Regular Visitor Since 1888
Whittenberg, Aug. 21—Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Vandy and daughter, Edna, of Bayonne, N. J., are staying at the home of Mrs. Watson Hiseley until September, when they will return home in their car. This family have been regular visitors to this settlement since 1888.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Winkle, Miller's Lane, a son, Milton, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Polanco, 12 Cordis street, a son, Francis Anthony.

Kiwanis Kapers In September

At the meeting of the Kiwanis Club on Thursday it was announced that the dates had been fixed for the annual Kiwanis Kapers which will be staged in the Broadway Theatre on Friday and Saturday, September 27 and 28. This year an entirely new show will be given, and the proceeds, as usual, will be for the money to carry on the welfare work of the club in Kingston.

Sums for $5,000.

Papers have been served on Stephen Hines, Jr., of Malden in an action brought by Mrs. Della Nish of the same place to recover $5,000 in alienation of affections. Thomas Allen of Albany is attorney for Mrs. Nish. Attorney Grant M. Brinley of Saugerties will defend the actor for Hines. Mrs. Nish in the papers alleges that she and the defendant made a trip to Canada and after winning her heart he had refused to marry her.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

New York—Having dropped $50,000,000 or so in the stock market, Joshua S. Cooder has made a remarkable comeback in eight months. Estimates in financial circles are that he is now worth $15,000,000 made in all developments. He quit the market when broke and has not had a single brokerage account since.

Coates, N. Y.—Mrs. E. Roland Harriman holds a record for women drivers. In 1:59 1/2 with pace she drove her brown six-year-old horse, Highland Scott, an exhibition mile at the grand circuit meeting. The horse cost her $25,000. Mrs. Harriman's husband, like his father, the railroad magnate, is also a lover of light harness horses and an amateur driver.

New York—Li Chi Ming, student at Columbia and editor's bride, has been perturbed over a story in a rival paper terming her "a dew wife." Dew vanishes quickly, therefore, "dew wife" in Chinese parlance has temporary significance, the bride explaining after she was freed in court on charges that she had led a raiding party and roughhoused the rival paper.

Calais, Maine—A species of fly strange to this Canadian border town is like some gentlemen in its preferences. Insects swarming the international bridge pestered tourists and appeared to customs officers to be bothering blondes more than brunettes.

New York—Rudy Vallee is being sued by Bert Lown for a 50-50 split of the money he has made since he and his jazz orchestra became favorites. Among other things Lown avers he loaned Rudy money to buy a dress suit for a tryout and taught him a sob-like tone that is the secret of the popularity of his singing.

Detroit—Some Moose from Seattle, garbed as cowboys, fired blank cartridges in the lobby of a hotel. L. W. Pilot, a Philadelphia delegate to the national convention, thought it was a holdup and fell from his chair. He had to be taken to a hospital.

New York—Mabelle Carroll, French war bride of Earl Carroll, has paid two months' rent—$468.88 on her Greenwich Village apartment and thereby ended eviction proceedings. She said in court that her allowance from her estranged producer husband was late.

New York—You may telephone Dublin, Belfast or the Isle of Man beginning next Monday for $46.50. Transatlantic service will be extended.

NEW PALTZ

New Paltz, Aug. 23.—Felix West is seriously ill at his home on the New Paltz and Highland road. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Quick were business callers Monday evening at John K. Smalley's.

Lester L. Sagendorf was in Woodstock one day the past week.

Mrs. Frank Allen of Wurts avenue is spending some time visiting in New York and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Krom motored with their daughter and family of Kingston to Stone Ridge on Sunday.

Mrs. Morgan Coutant and daughter, Estelle, have returned after spending a few days in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Goodson of Ridgeway, South Carolina, who are spending their vacation at the home of Mrs. Herman DuBois on Prospect street, are enjoying a few days' motor trip through the Adirondacks.

Mrs. A. P. LeFevre is visiting her niece, Mrs. Van Aken, in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryna Hasbrouck, Miss Helen Hasbrouck and Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Clinton Seward motored to Phoenix and through the Woodland Valley on Sunday.

Milton Gregory returned home from Kingston Hospital on Sunday.

Rosalie Gerlicher is ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Ernest Tamney and Mrs. Maria DuBois have returned from a ten days' outing at Lake Wabamung, Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Millham spent the week-end at Inwood, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Kurtz.

Mrs. George Johnston has returned from a western trip.

Mrs. Abram P. LeFevre, Mrs. Bertha Denanston, Mrs. Gertrude Deyo, Mrs. Lawrence Osterhout and children, motored to Red Hook on Sunday to visit friends.

Jesse Elling DuBois and party of friends from New York city spent the week-end with Mrs. L. DuBois.

Mrs. Mary F. Stahl, Caroline Stahl and Miss Finley visited friends in South Kortright last week.

Miss Halleck is spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Relyea.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosell DuBois entertained at cards Monday evening.

Mrs. Fred Deyo, Margaret Hasbrouck and Mrs. Margaret B. Hall recently spent a few days in Troy.

Mrs. B. LeFevre was hostess to the Monday Auction Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Van Vleet and son, Wesley, are spending a few days in New York city with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Germain.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. Ida Stevens, Wednesday afternoon, August 21. Delegates to the fall convention at Lloyds, to be held September 4, were elected as follows: Mrs. Eleanor Fletcher, Mrs. Thomas Krom, Mrs. Webb Kniffen, Mrs. Ida Stevens, Mrs. Morgan K. Coutant. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. George Grimm, Mrs. Rosell Du-

Good Music at Dutchess Co. Fair

Patrons of the Dutchess County Fair who are lovers of good music will be pleased to learn that the New Departure Band of Bristol, Conn., has been re-engaged to provide the daily concerts during the coming week of the fair. These musicians recently returned from a brief engagement at the Atlantic City Steel Pier, where they scored a smashing triumph among the select clientele that invades America's playground.

The New Departure Band is one of the leading musical organizations of its kind in New England and ranks with the best in the East, having made successful concert appearances in New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut. The band is made up of musicians who are employees of the New Departure Manufacturing Company of Bristol, Conn., the largest accessory unit in the General Motors Corporation. DeWitt Page, president of this company, has taken a personal interest and pride in the development of the band since its organization twelve years ago. Because of his thorough support, it has been made possible to secure talented musicians from musical centers of the country. The organization includes several outstanding solo instrumentalists who will be heard in this series of concerts.

Few bands have so extensive a library of band music as is maintained by this organization. This library consists of compositions acquired from all parts of the world and each concert will offer selections of this character that will be absolutely new to this fair.

The director of the band, Ernest A. Becker, is also a composer of band music. His career as a master musician began when he was a mere boy not yet in his teens when he rendered cornet solos in concert programs. His musical ability is inherent as he comes of a family of talented musicians.

The band has filled a number of engagements at many of the larger fairs in this section in recent years, and Conductor Becker has adopted special programs that have a particular appeal to the fair-loving public.

During the past several winters the band delighted a large number of radio listeners with diversified programs from station WTIC, and will also be heard on the ether during the coming winter months.

The organization has created an enviable reputation throughout Connecticut and is in unusually heavy demand where good music is appreciated. The invitation to the bandmen to appear at Atlantic City, where only the finest quality of entertainment is afforded, is an excellent tribute to the standing of New Departure musicians.

The popular acclaim which greeted the musicians upon their appearance at the fair last year has prompted the management to renew the engagement and it is certain that their offerings this season will also meet with the approval of its patrons.

The band will give three concerts daily—morning, afternoon and evening—at the Fair Grounds at Rhinebeck, August 27 to 31, inclusive.

MONTMARTRE IS MISJUDGED ABROAD SAY FRENCHMEN

Paris, Aug. 23 (AP)—Frenchmen interested in a just interpretation of France in foreign countries are beginning to rebel at the conception abroad of Montmartre as being solely a Parisian district dedicated to pleasure, and French people generally are becoming somewhat incensed over the conception that the joyful side of the Montmartre represents all Paris.

They point out that Montmartre really signifies what its name implies, that is to say, the mountain of hill of the martyrs.

Three or four centuries after the birth of Christ the Romans who occupied Paris slew a number of Christians in this district, hence the quarter became the place of dolorous memory, the hill of the martyrs.

As a matter of fact, that part of Montmartre, the whole eighteenth ward of Paris, which is devoted to music halls and restaurants, is comparatively small. The major part of the district is inhabited by serious-minded, hardworking Paris people of average or modest means, many thousands of them earnest church-goers who would not think of visiting the end of the district which has proved so attractive to foreign visitors.

Montmartre also has another aspect which is as widely separated from the pleasures of the night clubs as anyone could possibly conceive. At the top of Montmartre is the great Basilica, which dominates the whole city, the Sacre Coeur or Church of the Sacred Heart, built by public subscription taken throughout the whole of France.

Its wonderful bell, the biggest in France, ten feet high and weighing 18½ tons, was contributed entirely by the people of the mountainous departments of Savoy and Upper Savoy, hence its name Le Savoyard.

To this great and beautiful Basilica Catholics flock from all corners of France.

"There are five requisites to a good short story," explained the English teacher to the class. "Brevity, a reference to religion, some association with the nobility, action and an illustration of modesty. Now, with these four things in mind, I will give you thirty minutes to write a story."

Ten minutes later the hand of Sandy went up.

"That is fine, Sandy," she complimented, "and now read your story to the class."

Currency Rule.

According to Gresham's law, when two kinds of currency are in circulation the inferior or more depreciated one tends to drive the other out of circulation, owing to the hoarding and exportation of the latter. In other words, "bad money drives good money out of circulation." The law was first clearly stated by Sir Thomas Gresham, an English diplomat and merchant, who died in 1579.

NEW CUSTOMS OFFICE
SEAP HOUSE POINT
Rouses Point, N. Y., Aug. 22 (AP).
—A new combined customs and immigration office is to be erected soon on the Canadian border, probably at Overton's corner.
Immigration Commissioner Landis of Montreal, supervising Architect Bonner of Washington, D. C., and Assistant Customs Collector Rutherford of Ogdensburg met here recently and conferred on the location of several new offices along the border. One building is to be erected on the St. John's highway but the site has not been selected.
The officials also visited Champlain, where a new federal building is to be built.

Rosendale Town

As It Was in 1871

The following statistics and information relating to the town of Ro-sendale in 1871 have been prepared by Edwin C. Davis from the Ulster County Gazette of that date:

Rosendale was formed from Mar-ketown, New Paltz and Hurley.
April 26, 1841. It is an interior town lying east of the center of the county. The surface is a rolling and broken upland, the highest summit being 260 to 300 feet above the valleys. Rondout creek flows northeast through the town near the center, receiving Coxsackkill from the south and Cottekill from the north.
The Delaware and Hudson Canal extends along the Rondout creek. The soil is chiefly a sandy loam. In the northwest part of the town are several small lakes, called the Binnewaters.

Cement is extensively manufactured throughout the town. The Wallkill Valley Railroad extends through the whole length of the town. In the southwest part are three caves, in a ledge of the Shawank Mountains, where ice is found at all times of the year.

Rosendale, situated on the creek and canal, near the center of the town, contains three churches, viz.:
Reformed, Baptist and Roman Catholic; two hotels, two stores, a school,
two blacksmith shops, three wagon shops, an undertaker, coal yard, a barbershop, a shoe shop, two milliners, a meat market, a cement kiln, and about 500 population. The Wallkill Valley Railroad crosses the creek at this place on a bridge 900 feet long and 140 feet above the water.

Lawrenceville, named in honor of Mr. Watson E. Lawrence, is situated on the creek, about a mile above Rosendale and contains two cement manufactories and about 400 inhabitants.

The Rosendale Cement Company's
mills at this place have a manufacturing capacity of about 350 barrels daily, and give employment to about 60 men. This is the pioneer company in the manufacture of cement and was established by Watson E.
Lawrence, who now resides in New York.

Lawrenceville Cement Company have a capacity for manufacturing about 125,000 barrels each season, giving employment to about 120
men. The mills are on the Delaware and Hudson Canal.

Bruceville in the west part of the town, on Rondout creek, about 2½ miles from Rosendale, contains a store, a cement mill and fifteen dwellings.

The Bruceville cement manufactory makes about 30,000 barrels each season and gives employment to about 35 hands. The mills have a capacity for about 300 barrels per day. James H. Vandemark is the proprietor.

A mineral spring in this place receives some patronage.

Rosendale Plains is a hamlet about 1½ miles south of Rosendale, and contains a hotel, blacksmith shop,
a trotting course and ten dwellings.

LeFevre Falls, formerly known as Rook Lock, is situated about a mile below Rosendale, and contains a store, three hotels, two cement manufactories and about thirty dwellings.

The New York Cement Company at this place manufacture about 500 barrels of cement per day and about 100,000 barrels during the season.

Martin and Clearwater's Cement
Works have a capacity for making 80,000 barrels per season and give employment to about one hundred men.

Whiteport, in the northwest part of the town, is about four miles north of Rosendale and about the same distance south of Rondout.

It contains the Newark and Ro-sendale Lime and Cement Works and a population of about 1,500, including what is known as Hickory Bush.
The village has been built up almost wholly by the cement works. They manufacture about 800 barrels per day and have a capacity for 1,000 barrels. The barrels are all made here and their cement is transported to tide water over a horse railroad.

They employ about 180 men. Their quarries are entered by tunnels,
two of which are 200 feet in length each and one seventy feet. They have a perpendicular depth of about 120 to 140 feet. They have seventeen kilns, fifteen of which are in constant use. It is ground in a mill containing twelve runs of three foot stones, the power being a fifty horse power water wheel and two 100
horse power engines.

The Lawrenceville Cement Company was established in 1848. Their works are about a mile south of Whiteport. They manufacture about 550 barrels per day and give employment to about 100 men. Their cement is quarried and burned there and transported over a horse railroad to Eddyville, where it is ground and shipped.

Creek Locks, in the east part of the town, where the canal locks into the creek, contains two stores, a grocery, a school and about 25 dwellings. The Hudson Cement Works, located on the Hudson river, a few miles above Rondout, have an extensive quarry near Creek Locks, where they give employment to about fifty men. The stone is conveyed about three-eighths of a mile on an inclined plane railway, the descending cars drawing up
the ascending ones.

The Warner Lime and Cement Company of Troy has a quarry and kilns in this town, where they give employment to fifteen men.

Early Settlement.
The first settlement of this town was made about 1768. It received its name from the old "Rosendale Farm", where an inn was kept in 1711. The place is now owned by Mrs. M. C. Cornell. It was the residence of Colonel Rutzen, one of the patentees. The house is of stone and was for a long time the office of the Local Commissioner of the county.

General Washington visited this county in June, 1783, when Mrs.
Washington and Governor and Mrs.
Clinton were entertained in this house by Colonel Rutzen. As this town had no separate connection until 1844, its early history is bounded with that of adjacent towns from which it was taken.

"Gordon's Gazetteer", published in 1836, says the village of Rosendale contains ten or twelve dwellings and a hydraulic cement factory, owned by W. E. Lawrence, and giving employment to from 100 to 200 hands, and producing 500 casks daily.

Churches.
The Reformed Church was the first organized in the town. The Rev. J.
McFarland was its first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1843; it will seat 300 and cost
$2,500. The present membership is 82. The Rev. M. F. Liebenow is the pastor.

The New School Baptist Church was organized by Lewis Raymond with 26 members. The first pastor was David Mores. Their house of worship was erected in 1841; it will seat 350 and cost $1,600. Its present value is $3,500. The present membership is 76, and the pastor is the Rev. D. Van Fredenburgh.

St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church was organized in 1851 by Father
Martin, with about fifty members.
The first services were held under a tree on the present site of the church.
Their house of worship was erected in 1852; it seats 350. The first pastor was the Rev. Edward Lynch; the present pastor is the Rev. Patrick Brady. The membership is 1,500 and the value of the church property is $10,000.

The town's population in 1870 was 3,625 and its area 11,293 acres, with an assessed valuation of $442,820.

There are seven school districts in the town, employing nine teachers.
The number of children of school age is 1,256; the number attending school, 775; the average attendance 347, and the value of schoolhouses and sites $1,850.

Agricultural statistics from census of 1865:

Military.

The town not having been organized until 1844, there are no early military items belonging to its separate history as a civil division. To the history of the towns from which Rosendale was taken, reference is made for military rolls or other items that may relate to men then living upon the territory which now constitutes Rosendale.

The following persons served in the war of 1812: John Blanshan, Abram Clearwater, John Clearwater,
William Dietz, Alexander H. Heermann, Adam S. LeFevre, John P.
Roosa, Jonathan Schoonmaker, Samuel L. Schoonmaker, David Slater, Louis Snyder, Henry Weaver and probably others. Job Tilton is mentioned as a pensioner of the Revolution.
During the crucial times of 1861-65 the town furnished approximately ninety-two men who served in the Union Army.

RARE CANDLESTICK

IN SARATOGA CONVENTION

Mechanicville, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP).

A rare extension candlestick of the type used by carpenters in pre-Revolutionary days when they were obliged to work overtime is among a number of antiques contributed to the collection at the Saratoga battlefield by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wooding of this city.

The stick may be extended, much
after the fashion of a telescope, and was accompanied by a number of candles believed to have been made about the time of the candi-stick. Included also in the collection is an antique hand-made hammer; a tailor's goose of the Revolutionary period; and Indian pedestal and a rare flax spinning wheel.

COTTEKILL

Cottekill, Aug. 23.—Mrs. George O. Woodliff of Astoria, L. I., who is spending the summer with her brother, George Styles, will sing a solo as a part of the worship service in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday afternoon at 2:15, standard time.

THROUGH DUSK OR DAWN

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

HAS God forsaken you, or you forgotten God a little while? He did not promise all life through That we should smile.

Is He a God, or is He none. This God of yours? Or is He one To praise in joy, to seek in pain. To follow through the shining sun And through the rain?

Yes, when He leads us through the vale. Then shall we fail to follow Him? The night is not all righting and And cherubim.

How poorly we esteem a friend Who loves us only when we spend; And what of those who turn aside From God when pleasure's at an end. Some say delight?

I pray we have a better faith Than just the faith of happy days— To love through life, to love through death.

Through all our ways. Just why we do not always know, But if the vale's the path to do, I hope that we shall follow on, Yes, through the roses or the snow, Through dusk or dawn.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

MAKING A CAREER

THERE are some artists who think that prizes and such things do no good in their profession.

In fact, one large body of American painters and sculptors, calling themselves "Independents" always announce their annual exhibition as "without a jury and without prizes."

But even those who believe in allowing the individual artist to make his own way without assistance, would be rather stricken by the romance of Frank Schwarz, a starving boy of twenty, who had served in the campaign service in the war, and was living from hand to mouth in New York until a short time ago.

There had been a knock at his door and he was holding a notice in his hand, telling him that he would have to give up his garret—he owed a month's rent, $12, which he was unable to pay.

Face to face with impending disaster he heard the postman's call in the street below.

More out of habit than in any hope, he dragged himself down the four flights of stairs to receive an official letter, notifying him that he had won the Prix de Rome, that he had given up all hopes of having come his way.

He rushed off to find the secretary of the American academy in Rome. Not only was it all true, but there was another happy shock for him.

Barry Faulkner, in charge of the Tiffany Foundation for Artists at Oyster Bay, had recommended that he be admitted to the summer course there, as an additional prize for his picture "A Tribute to Herodotus."

So instead of the dreary grind in the East Nineteenth street tenement, Italy and Rome with all their treasures were waiting for him.

The academy arranged for his passage and supplied him with a studio and living quarters abroad.

To show that there is some truth in the old proverb that it never rains but it pours, the father of young Schwarz arrived at the house almost as soon as the son had left it carrying a clipping from a newspaper.

The family had been separated for years and the announcement of the award was the first clue to put the other man, a waiter in a big hotel, on the track of the younger who had gone his way from the Middle West to make a career.

It all reads like an exciting moving picture story of art life. All the contrasts are there.

Shotgun Duel Fatal to Both Men

Clover, Ga., Aug. 23 (AP)—Two men who met in the center of town by street to fight a duel with shotguns and pistols were dead today as the explanation of a father's objection to a married man's proposed attentions to his daughter.

The duel, attended by a gathering of onlookers, marked the end of a feud of family between Paul Huddleston, 32, and Marcus Brown, 42, both farmers. The trouble between them was climaxed by the refusal of Huddleston's daughter, Mary, to marry Brown.

The father sent a message to Brown warning him to stop his attentions to his daughter. Brown, infuriated by the message, was said to have challenged the father to meet him at a designated store on the town's principal street yesterday afternoon.

The townspeople had heard of the challenge, and a crowd of men had gathered with hope of preventing the duel.

Huddleston already had arrived and was seated in front of the store with a shotgun on his lap when Brown came up, also carrying a shotgun. Both guns were loaded with buckshot.

Brown walked past Huddleston, and the latter followed him into the store. Brown stopped in the store and Huddleston went out through the back way and around to the front where he recognized his seat. Brown walked out, turning as if to pass down the street, but suddenly wheeled, and fired the load of one barrel into Huddleston's stomach. Huddleston, fatally wounded, fired from his lap, the charge taking effect in Brown's chest and causing instant death. The gun's recoil knocked Huddleston to the sidewalk. He died a few hours later.

Officers said Brown previously had served three months on a chain gang for an elopement with Huddleston's daughter. The father had been informed Brown had returned yesterday from a second elopement with the daughter, and it was then he sent the message. Huddleston was the father of five children. The daughter involved is 25 and divorced.

THE JACKET SUIT GOES OVER SMARTLY INTO THE NEW SEASON.

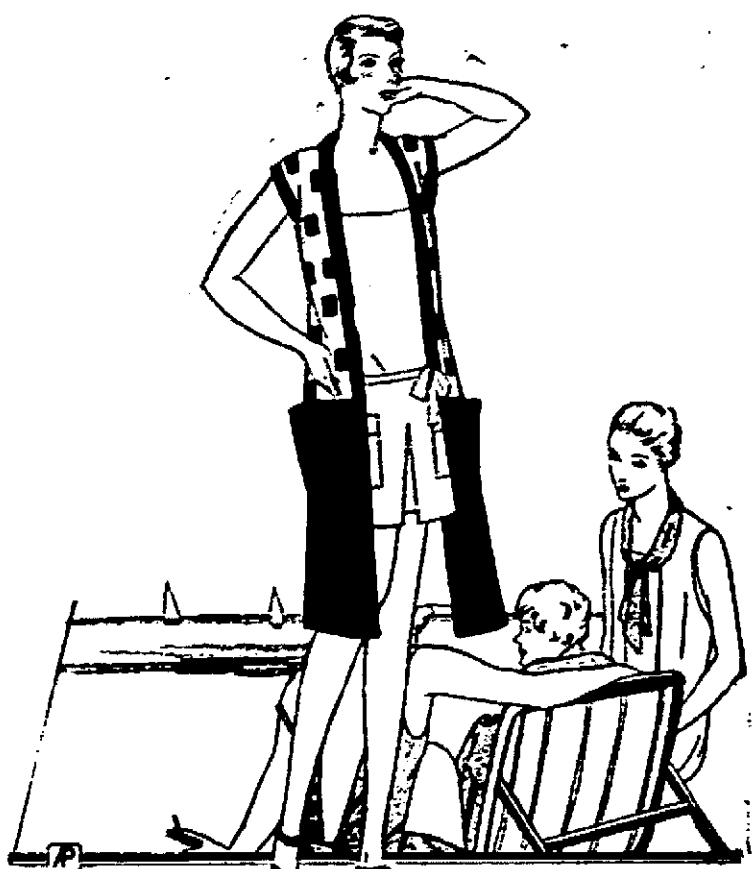

New York.—The jacket costume has come to stay throughout another season. Interpreted in silks, satins, cottons and linens as it is for current wear, it will soon express itself in tweed, velvet and materials appropriate with the new season.

Women who have to replenish their wardrobes immediately will find considerable satisfaction in the selection of a silk or satin suit, for they may be topped later by a coat. The use of a jacket costume with a coat is in fact one of the most arresting of the many style messages from the recent openings.

Brown Satin Fashions An Ensemble Which Has a Flat Crepe Blouse the Upper Part of Which Is Pale Yellow and the Lower Capeline.
(Copyright, 1929, by Fairchild.)

All shades of brown, and certain of the darker greens notably those of the bottle caste are being highlighted for fall. Combinations of brown and beige and brown and yellow now rival those of brown and red, while black enlivened with green, chartreuse, red or electric blue meets with the entire endorsement of Lanvin, whose collection seems to have been particularly admired by the hordes of buyers who journeyed to Paris to attend the openings.

While black is presented in rather more than the usual quota, there is no danger of dullness this fall if the present color range goes over with women in general.

The jacket costume is usually accompanied by either a tuckin or an overblouse, usually the former. Tweed suits have novelty jersey blouses, but formal suits, such as satin call for crepe or georgette. Three inches below the knee is a generally accepted skirt length for this type of costume.

Spectator Sports Frock Made of Cotton Crepe

Cotton crepe fashions this spectator sports frock. The modernistic pattern in midnight blue and geranium red on the lower part of the blouse is repeated on the neckline, and the white kid accessories with a clever angora hat complete the costume.

OUR DAILY PATTERNS

6571

A Pretty Evening Gown. 6541. As pictured the waist portions and drapery are of taffeta studded with rhine stones, and the flounces are of tulle over a foundation skirt of taffeta. Lace over satin or taffeta would also be pleasing for this design or printed chiffon for the drapery of satin or taffeta ribbon. The long waist portions join the skirt and flounces (which are mounted on the skirt) at a split curve in front, and in straight outline in the back. The neck opening is round and low in front; in the back it is U shaped. The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches bust measure. To make the dress for a 38 inch size will require 4 1/2 yards of 39 inch material. For waist and drapery of contrasting material 2 yards will be required 27 inches wide. The width of the foundation skirt, at the lower edge is 1 1/2 yards. The width of the lower flounce is 2 1/4 yards with fullness extended.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y.

See, N. Y. Be sure to make the also wanted.

Pattern Book Notice.

Send 12c in coin or stamps to The Freeman for our up-to-date Spring and Summer 1929 Book of Patterns showing color plates, and containing 500 designs of ladies', misses' and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 18 of the various plating stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

How to keep

COOL

Hot weather calls for light, crisp foods. Eat delicious Kellogg's Corn Flakes at least once a day in summer. A bowlful, with cool milk or cream, supplies nourishment without "heating" the body. Kellogg's are one of the most healthful treats your grocer has. So crisp and easy to digest they really help you feel cool.

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are wonderfully inviting three meals a day. Ideal for the children's supper. Add fresh or canned fruits or honey.

Always insist on Kellogg's, the original Corn Flakes. 12,000,000 people daily prefer them. Always extra crisp.

Look for the red-and-green package. At grocers. Served by hotels, restaurants, on dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Oven-fresh in the patented waxite wrapper.

The annual meeting of the Marlborough W. C. T. U. was held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church on Thursday afternoon. Reports of the different officers were heard and election of officers took place. All of last year's officers were re-elected: President, Mrs. A. H. Coutant; first vice president, Mrs. Agnes Burnham; second vice president, Mrs. Harrison Dawes; recording secretary, Miss Mamie Lyons; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Fredericks; treasurer, Mrs. Demmick Bloomer. Three delegates were appointed to attend the County W. C. T. U. convention, which will be held at Lloyd on September 4. They are: Mrs. A. H. Coutant, Mrs. William Coutant and Miss Mamie Lyons. Other members of the local union plan to attend.

Two cents on a dollar will be the assessment this year on the voters in school district No. 3, town of Marlborough, for the local school. The

PERMANENT DENIED CREDIT FOR COLORING OF SKIN

Boston, Aug. 23 (AP).—The differing skin colors of various races, and the coloring of individuals, depends largely upon other factors than pigment.

How this fact has been ascertained by photography and spectroscopy analysis was described to the Thirtieth International Physiological Congress at Harvard Medical school today by Dr. Charles Sherrington and Dr. Louis A. Brunsing of Rochester, Minn.

They find that the dominant skin color is spectral yellow.

"Pigment," says their report, "is not a racial characteristic. Pigment does not disturb the hue or purity of the color of the skin, but tends to lower the values of relative luminosity."

"The blood of the superficial capillaries exerts a marked influence on the reflection of light and therefore on the color of the skin. An abundance of oxygenated blood near the surface tends to shift the dominant wavelength of reflected light toward the red end of the spectrum; an abundance of blood of the veins produces a shifting of the dominant wavelength toward the blue end of the spectrum."

STONE RIDGE

Stone Ridge, Aug. 23.—At the meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Wednesday, afternoon plans were made for a food sale to be held on Saturday, August 31. The committee are now at work soliciting items for the sale.

The Builders of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet for their monthly business session at the Parsonage on Wednesday, August 28, at 2 p. m., standard time. At this meeting clothing will be packed for the Near East Relief. Anyone who has clothing to give to this cause should send it to the Parsonage before this date.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church next Sunday the Sunday School will meet at 9:15. Morning worship will begin at 10:30. The evening community service will be held in this church at 7:30, and the Rev. C. Van Tol will deliver the message.

CANADIAN ALE CARGO
LIES SEVEN FATHOMS DEEP

Dunkirk, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP).—Somewhere just outside the Dunkirk breakwater, 350 cases of Canadian ale lie in seven fathoms of water because a liquor-running crew failed to take soundings while shipping across the boundary under cover of darkness.

The story goes that the crew of the liquor-runner learned in some mysterious fashion that a United States coast guard boat was tied up at the dock here and became alarmed. A whispered colloquy ensued and the skipper of the liquor-laden craft, believing he was lying over shallow water, ordered the cargo dumped overboard.

Followed 350 muffled splashes as the cases of ale slid overboard. Not until some time later did the crew learn the actual depth of the water which covered the cache. As far as has been learned no attempts have been made to salvage the ale.

Austria Gets a Nice Check.
Washington, Aug. 23 (AP).—Secretary Mellon has sent a check for $1,122,514.70 to the Austrian minister out of funds seized by the alien property custodian during the war. The action was taken under the trusteeship with the enemy act which provided that funds not needed to make payments on accounts of amounts of the tripartite claims could be returned.

Financial and Commercial
New York, Aug. 23 (AP).—The stock market went forth on another wild bull rampage today in the face of record-breaking increase in Federal Reserve brokers' loans. Thirty or more stocks were whirled up 3 to 17 points to new high records. The list included several representative steel, oil, railroad and public utility stocks. Trading was fairly heavy. Several blocks of 5,000 to 50,000 shares changing hands, particularly in the oil group.

Inasmuch as the sharpest gains were recorded by stocks of companies reporting unusually large current earnings. Wall Street regarded the rally as an indication that large operators had disregarded at least temporarily, the credit situation, and based their campaign on the excellent character and prospects of business.

Bear operators, who have been selling stocks freely in the last few days on the theory that a large gain in brokers' loans would cause another sharp setback, were forced to cover with large losses, or witness steadily mounting paper losses staring them in the face.

Call money renewed unchanged at 7 per cent and it looked a though that rate would be maintained over the week end, instead of dropping back to 6 as it has in the two previous sessions. There was no change in other monetary accommodations.

Revival of speculative activity and strength in the oil shares, based on the theory that the curtailment program is slowly bearing fruit, was one of the features of the session. Standard Oils of New Jersey and New York and Texas Company, three of the recognized leaders of the group moved into new high ground.

Westinghouse Electric was the spectacular individual feature, soaring 15 1/2 points to a new high record at 292 1/2. The first preferred ran up 17 points to a new high at 276. Reduction was pushed up 15 points to 199 1/2. Dupont 14 to 220, United States Steel common 8 1/2 to 258 1/2.

Warren Brothers, 6 1/2 to 187 1/2. International Telephone 6 1/2 to 137 1/2. Bethlehem Steel 5 1/2 to 135 1/2. all new high records.

Powerful buying came into the motor shares in the early afternoon, a block of 22,000 shares of General Motors changing hands at 75, up 2 1/2 points. Mack Truck rose about 4 points.

WHY Capacity of Ship Is Known as Tonnage.
Tonnage may refer to either the capacity or weight of a vessel. The word itself is derived from "ton," a large cask or barrel in which wine, ale and other liquids were formerly transported. In the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries "tonnage" or "tonnage" was the number of tuns of wine a merchant ship could carry. Later tonnage was estimated by measurement which gave approximately the actual cubic content of the vessel. As now applied to American merchant ships tonnage is classified under "space or statutory tons" and "weight tons." In reference to space a ton is 100 cubic feet. Gross tonnage is the capacity of the space within the frames or ceiling of the hull and of the closed-in spaces above the deck available for cargo, stores, passengers, crew, etc. Net or register tonnage is what remains after deducting from the gross tonnage the space occupied by the propelling machinery, regular fuel supply, crew quarters, master's cabin and navigation spaces. This is the usual basis for tonnage taxes and port charges. A weight ton is a unit of weight—an avoirdupois ton of 2,240 pounds. As applied to merchant ships deadweight, tonnage is the weight required to depress a vessel from the light water line, namely, with only the machinery and equipment on board, to the load line. It is, therefore, the weight in tons of the cargo, fuel, stores, water, crew, etc., which the vessel is designed to carry with safety.

Why World's Supply of Oil Is Not Endangered
The future of our oil supply may rest in the bottom of the sea. Geologists say that the source beds of most of our oil fields are marine in origin, deposited millions of years ago. Through the ages oil of these sea deposits was concentrated into pools that are now being drained. So far, tests of ocean material show that all types of sediment, from clay to sand, produce oil in some quantities after distillation, ranging from nearly three gallons from a ton of clay silt to almost nothing from sand.

The amount of oil obtained from sea soil at present is only about 5 to 10 per cent of the yield from high-grade oil shale, which sometimes gives as much as fifty gallons a ton.

Why Justice Is "Blind"
The portrayal of justice as a figure which is blindfolded can be traced to the conception of the Egyptian goddess Maat, the personification of physical and moral law and order and truth. Maat became the personification of justice who awarded to every man his due. Maat was the "Lady of the Judgment Hall." Dr. Alfred Wiedemann, professor in the University of Bonn, writing in "Religion of the Ancient Egyptians," says of Maat that this goddess of truth and justice, who is mentioned in some of the oldest texts, was occasionally represented with bandaged eyes, since justice judges without respect of persons.

Why Postage Rates Vary
The postal regulations require that publishers of periodicals and newspapers shall pay third-class postage rates (1 1/2 cents for each ounce) on copies mailed at their local post office, provided that office has a free delivery service. They can mail copies for all other places by the pound at the second-class rate—which are much lower. The postage in this case will include free delivery from all offices having such service. Owing to this odd kind in the law, many publications charge more for subscriptions in their home-town than elsewhere—Pathfinder Magazine.

Why Called "Trudgeon Stroke"
The word "trudgeon" which is applied to a very popular stroke used by swimmers, gives one the idea of a motion of dogged perseverance and machine-like precision. A correspondent says, however, that this particular stroke was first practiced by a man named Trudgeon, a fitter employed on shipbuilding in the Isle of Dogs and Woolwich arsenal. His name fitted his invention quite well—London Mail.

How Sea Snakes Differ
All sea snakes are poisonous. They are distinguished from other snakes by having a compressed, rudder-shaped tail. Sea snakes feed on fish and are unable to live long on land. It is supposed that they seldom attain a greater length than 12 feet.

Why Cows Fail to Pop
Popcorn may easily become too dry to pop successfully. It is the steam pressure developed within its hard shell by applied heat that causes it to explode, and there must be moisture within the shell.

Why Sun Causes Soreness
Looking at the sun causes a person to sneeze because gazing at the great luminary stimulates certain nerves in the eyes and perhaps in the nose.

Why Baseball Diamond
A baseball field is referred to as a "diamond" instead of a square because the bases are located at the angles.

About the Folks
Miss Kathryn Gilday is spending two weeks in New London, Conn.
Miss Lina Schmidtknecht has returned home after spending several weeks in New York City and Ashbury Park, N. J.

Hydrophobia Danger
Mad dogs and, less frequently, mad cats, can by their saliva transmit hydrophobia to human beings. Hydrophobia does not develop in a pet dog or cat unless this particular pet has been bitten by some other animal which has the disease. Ordinarily, pet dogs and cats are not likely to transmit the disease. If they are bitten by a street dog, danger of developing the disease remains for at least six months.

The funeral of Nellie J. Richards, wife of the late Edward Richards, was held today at 9 a. m. from the home of her brother, David Roach, and from St. Joseph's Church at 9:30 a. m., where a solemn high Mass of requiem was celebrated with the Rev. Thomas Sanderson of the Redemptorist Order as celebrant, the Rev. Edmund B. Burke as deacon, and the Rev. Francis X. FitzPatrick as subdeacon. The children's choir of St. Joseph's Church, under the direction of Mrs. William J. Leary, sang the responses. At the conclusion of the Mass the choir sang, "Teus, Jesus, Come to Me." Father Burke called at the late home on Thursday and led in the recitation of the Rosary. The many friends of the deceased sent a profusion of floral offerings and spiritual bouquets. The bearers were James A. Phelan, E. Frank Flanagan, William B. Byrne, William O'Reilly, Gustav Kogel and Timothy Mahoney. Interment was in the family plot in St. Mary's Cemetery, where committal service was offered by Father Burke and Sanderson.

AMERICAN LEGIONARIES IN ROME
Rome, Aug. 23 (AP).—Led by National Commander Paul McNitt, thirty members of the American Legion visiting the Legion's Rome headquarters, began their first day's program by laying a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier, and two others on the tombs of King Victor Emanuel and King Humbert in the Pantheon. Italian veterans with massed flags formed parallel lines through which the Americans mounted the steps of the monument and knelt while the Rev. Mr. Jarrett, chaplain of the Legion's Rome post, recited the Lord's prayer.

Enjoyable Card Party
At the card party held at the home of Mrs. A. Short, 6 Webster street, Thursday, for the benefit of the bazaar to be held by the Amaranth in October at the Masonic Club, a very enjoyable evening was spent. A goodly number of beautiful prizes was on exhibition. A basket of flowers went to Mrs. Caroline Sullivan. At the close of the games dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who was voted a royal entertainer.

EARTH TREMORS MOVE IN CYCLES

Astronomer Says World
Passed Through Seismic
Crisis in 1923.

Paris.—In a recent issue of Le Petit Journal the Abbe Th. Moreux, director of the Observatory of Bourges, discussed the always interesting question of earthquakes periodicity, on which he is a recognized authority. He said:

"It seems to be still the style in certain official quarters to deny periodicity in earthquakes. In fact, we register, one year and another, about 3,000 shocks, but as far as intensity goes the years do not resemble one another.

"As our technique improves we succeed in noting the slightest seismic manifestations, and as long as a savant studies the phenomena with a magnifying glass the brood laws which regulate them will very probably escape him.

Detect Slightest Tremors.
"There is a fact analogous to what the astronomers observe. At present our instruments have attained such precision that we can detect the slightest perturbations in the march of the planets. These are far from following orbits absolutely elliptical, so that the general laws of celestial mechanics would be more difficult to outline now than when Kepler laid them down for the first time with the aid of rudimentary observations.

"All the same, one would have an incredible lack of good sense not to notice in certain years seismic phenomena of extraordinary amplitude.

"That we passed through such a crisis in 1923 cannot be doubted by those who read the newspapers regularly. I announced that crisis, after November 23, 1922, in these columns and also in my review—Revue du Ciel—in the following January issue. It was, moreover, not my first venture of this sort, since my first previsions date from 1902.

"If I insist on this point it is not at all to grant myself the title of prophet. There are enough Nostradamuses. My idea goes further. In the 30 years in which I have studied the sun I have asserted in all quarters of the world that all our climatology depends on the sun. My campaign caused smiles at first, and at the beginning they called me maliciously, the 'almoner of the sun.' But now the matter is so far advanced that it is a question as to who is entitled to the honor of having discovered that the sun's spots engender all calamities.

"In fact, those who have followed my work know very well that the sun spots are only one single manifestation of the general activity of the great star.

"And I claim that this activity not only exercises an influence on our exterior meteorology—rain, seasons, temperatures—but also on what I call endogenous meteorology—that which goes on under our feet.

Mistrust Scientific Theories.
"By what mechanism? It matters little, for I mistrust scientific theories like a pest and I always remember those words of Henri Poincaré: 'See, he used to say, by hypotheses in science—that is the asset which we lack least.'

"In a general way, I have been able to show that the earth troubles when solar activity increases and then brusquely diminishes.

"It is thus that, forecasting the curb of solar activity, I wrote on October 1, 1927: 'Earthquakes are going to diminish the world over during 1928. The years 1929 and 1930 will be a little more agitated, and 1931 will see a new beginning of a period of calm until 1934-35.'

"On February 18, 1929, I wrote in an article in the Daily Mail: 'We must wait till 1931 for a renewal of earthquakes.'

"If you follow in your newspaper dispatches from different points of the globe, or even of Europe, you can note that my prediction is being realized to the letter. The seismologists continue to register shocks. At the end of the year they will be delighted to observe that the average is about the same, but their instruments will be unable to reveal to them the number of victims or the amount of damage caused."

22 Alarms; One Fire
Boston.—A 22 alarm fire occurred here recently. That number of persons sounded alarms from various boxes near the scene of the blaze. While spectacular, the fire caused only a few thousand dollars' damage.

70, He Swims 4 Miles
When His Boat Sinks

Brigantine, N. J.—Capt. G. P. Crowley of Tuckerton, seventy years old, swam four miles to shore recently when his 35-foot auxiliary sloop, the Emma B., sank under him.

The swim took him more than three hours, but he refused medical assistance when he landed and promptly took a taxicab to Atlantic City to report the wreck to the Coast Guard. The sloop was carried to by the tide and stranded on a wharf near the shore.

BLOOMINGTON.
Bloomington, Aug. 22.—Joseph S. Norton and daughter, Dorothy, are spending their vacation of two weeks with their family at the Bloomington Villa Cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Niebergall of Bloomfield, N. J., who have been spending the past week with Mr.

and Mrs. Neal Hotelling, returned to their home Wednesday. They were accompanied by Miss Ruth Hotelling, who will spend the rest of her vacation in New York and New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Terhune called on Mr. and Mrs. Burton Roosa of Rosendale on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. David Conkling of Elizabeth, N. J., came on Wednesday to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. E. L. DeGraft.

Miss Margaret Armitano and niece, Miss Anna, with a girl friend, came on Wednesday from the city after spending a couple of weeks there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Every and son, Leslie, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Chatterton spent a most enjoyable vacation at the Rev. Mr. Bedford's camp on Caroga Lake, in the foothills of the Adirondacks.

The E. Z. Cottage has a few boarders at this time. J. Zuehl, who has been here a few days, returned to his home in Ridgefield Park on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hotelling and daughter, Ruth, spent the week-end camping in Woodland Valley.

Mrs. C. Shafer and son, Charles, Jr., returned to their home in Philadelphia on Sunday. Oscar Diedolf and Miss Lell Dietz of Binnewater accompanied them. They visited Washington and other points of interest, returning Wednesday.

Mr. Logquest is spending his vacation with his family, who are occupying Mrs. Anna Krom's house for the summer.

Mrs. Mary Reiera and daughter, Florence, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ennist of Kingston.

Mrs. J. Yunker entertained friends from Kerhonkson a few days of the past week.

Newspaper's First Duty
A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to show the temptations of a monopoly. Its primary office is the gathering of news. At the part of the soul it must see that the supply is not limited. Neither is what it gives out in what it does not give out, in the name of objectivity, the sacred duty of the newspaper. It is the duty of the newspaper to be a monopoly.

Tagging Major League Bases

By William J. Chipman
Associated Press sports writer

All the big winners in American League history have felt, at least once in their respective seasons of super-greatness, the sting of as many as three straight defeats. The Athletics of 1925 qualified under this rule of baseball fate yesterday—presuming that the A's not only will win but will win by a margin great enough to place them in a class with the Red Sox of 1912 and the Yankees of 1923 and 1927.

Jake Stahl's 1912 Red Sox stampeded Washington by fourteen and one-half games at the finish, but had one run of three straight defeats against them. Huggins' 1923 champions had two strings of three reverses bunched on either side of a lone victory in early June to make up a slump of six defeats in seven engagements. The 1927 Yankees lost four straight just after mid-season, but otherwise never hesitated.

Connie Mack's first run of three straight losses for the current season was accomplished in Chicago yesterday when the White Sox nosed out Mose Grove in the ninth by 4 to 3. Grove ran into Ted Lyons at his best, and was fortunate not to meet a 3 to 0 reverse as the White Sox booted three runs into the Athletic batbag in the eighth with three artistic errors.

The excessive heat in Chicago told upon Grove in the home half of the same round, and the Sox scored two runs to tie. In the Chicago ninth two singles placed men on first and third, and Grove passed the next man to make a force play at the plate. The Great Shires nullified this strategy with a single to left. Lyons gave the Athletics only six hits.

Grove is finding his nineteenth victory almost as elusive as his eighteenth proved to be. He has sought it twice in vain. His defeat yesterday was only his fourth of the season but his second by the White Sox. The Yankees and the Browns were the other lucky boys. With August on the wane, Mose has accounted for only one triumph for the month, but will have about two more chances to better his record.

The White Sox already have qualified as the jinx team not only to Grove, but also of the Athletics themselves. The Chicago victory yesterday brought Blackburne's boys up to within one of a tie against the A's in fifteen games, and left the coming champions faced by the necessity of taking at least the odd game in the remaining seven to win the season's series from the lowly Sox.

The Browns batted hard against the Messrs. Hoyt, Piggas and Nekola yesterday as Eammy Gray stopped the Yanks with seven hits to win by 10 to 0. The Browns got fifteen safeties. Braxton's pitching and Goslin's hitting enabled the Senators to down the Tigers by 6 to 1 at Detroit. Rain prevented action in Cleveland between the Indians and the Red Sox. After ten days or more of good pitching, the Cubs were forced yesterday to go through an afternoon of hard slugging. The Bruins adapted themselves to the job in hand, pounded four Philadelphia pitchers for twenty-one hits and won by 16 to 7. Fred Blake whited under a five-run Philadelphia rally in the fourth, and Mike Creggros expired in the seventh when Cy Williams hit a homer and two other Phillies walked. Gus Bush finished, allowing one hit. Mike got the victory for no particular reason. Hack Wilson's thirty-second homer was a feature of the Chicago attack.

The Cubs made no advance as the Pirates defeated the Giants by 6 to 2 in the battle for second place. Johnny Morrison pitched well enough to win a 13 to 9 decision over Cincinnati in Brooklyn after Watson Clark had permitted the Reds to pile up a lead of 5 to 0 in three rounds. The Robins celebrated with nine runs in the third, their biggest inning of the season, and so were in the lead when Morrison entered the box. Clark was deprived of the victory, however, by the National League rule which forces a starting pitcher to work five innings to win.

Naval Tribute to Washington
When naval ships are passing Washington's tomb, Mt. Vernon, Va., the ship's bell is tolled and the ensign half-masted. When opposite the tomb taps are sounded on the bugle, the guard presents arms, officers and men stand at attention and salute. When the last note of taps fades into the distant hills the ensign is again mast-headed and the band plays the national anthem.

Martin Wins Another Leg

At the Ulster County Gun Club shoot, held Thursday evening, Robert S. Martin won another leg on the Ralph trophy with perfect score of 25.

Other highest scorers for the day were:
Browning ..... 24
Coles ..... 24
Flinch ..... 23
Hopkins ..... 22

The next regular shoot will be held Saturday, August 24, at 2:30 p. m. Martin and Browning now each have two legs on Ralph Trophy and Hopkins one. It is hoped other members will come out and give these high men a run for their money.

BRINNIE'S HORSE WINS RACE AT GOUVERNEUR.

Reuben Direct, the horse owned by William D. Brinnier of this city, on Wednesday won a great race at the St. Lawrence county fair at Gouverneur, taking the race in straight heats, and coming within one second of the track record. The horse has been racing in the central New York fair circuit, and has been making fast time in all of his races.

High Record in Auto Production.
Washington, Aug. 23 (P).—Commerce Department figures show that the total domestic production of 2,723,723 motor vehicles, including passenger cars and trucks, during the first seven months of 1929, established a new high record in comparison with any similar period on record. The July production, counting only factory sales of motor vehicles, placed at $99,321, including 426,159 passenger cars, 73,118 trucks and 1,654 taxicabs. The output for the seven months' period was larger than in any entire year prior to 1923, and exceeded the production of 1924 and 1927. It was nearly eight times as large as the 1913 production.

Switzerland has completed the electrification of 1,300 miles for the main line of the federal railways.

Heavyweights Clash In Main Go at Fair Grounds Tonight

RUFINO ALVAREZ.
Rufino Alvarez, "the Tampa Terror", meets "Big Bill" Freeman, New York National Guard heavyweight champ, tonight in the 10-round feature at the Kingston Fair Grounds. The bouts has all the earmarks of a thrilling battle and is expected to draw a record crowd.

The supporting bouts are the 10-round semi-final in which Jack Warren, Chicago, vs. Andy Wallace, New York (who is substituting for Dan O'Connell of New Jersey, who was suspended by the boxing commission). Joe Pino, Tampa, Florida, vs. Billy Rapp, New York, 6 rounds; two 4 rounders, Allen Gibb, New York, vs. Augustine Perez, Porto Rico, and Joe Werner, Kingston, vs. Dusty Dumont, New York.

Games Sunday on Local Diamond

If the weather permits, the following games will be played on the local diamonds:
Rondout A. C. vs. Polish Club of Schenectady, at the Kingston Fair Grounds.
Koenig Kandy Kids vs. Callan's All-Stars from Newburgh, at Hasbrouck Park.

WILBUR'S EARLY SCORES PROVED FATAL TO NEW PALTZ.
Wilbur brought two runs across the plate in the first inning and because the game went but five innings these scores proved enough to win over New Palz by a score of 2 to 1. Thursday night at the latter's diamond.

TILDEN AND HUNTER NOT IN EASTERN-WESTERN SERIES.
New York, Aug. 23 (P).—P. Schuyler Van Bloem, president of the Eastern Lawn Tennis Association, announced last night that neither Tilden nor Hunter had accepted invitations to compete against the picked western team in the annual series at Forest Hills, August 31, and September 2, Labor Day. In their absence, the eastern team

Boston Girl, 16, Steps Into Big Time Of National Tennis

Sarah Palfrey

In the parlance of baseball, these girl tennis players at "sweet 16" usually are considered as comets by the ranking stars. Sarah Palfrey of Boston is an exception.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould,
(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

"It seems safe to predict that no man ever will hit 501 home runs to take Ruth's record away from him. Today he is at least 250 beyond Rogers Hornsby and Cy Williams—the one and only home run hitter of the decade."

The day after this dispatch was filed, the Babe himself hit No. 501, just as though at the age of 35 he was light-hearted enough to begin collecting the second five hundred. It would be just like the irrepressible Babe to consider 1,000 home runs not at all beyond his reach. Ten years ago you could have received the royal razz anywhere around the circuit by suggesting that Mr. Ruth would get even close to 500.

There has been only one Babe Ruth in over a half century of baseball. There may, as the forecaster quoted above asserts, never be his equal as a cloutier.

Yet they said there would never be another Tilden—and look at the pace Cochet and Lacoste have set since they toppled Big Bill from the tennis top.

There never would be another Lenglen, the experts said, but the same critics a few years later acclaimed Helen Wills as the greatest of all time; now they vision Betty Nuthall as the ultimate successor to the American queen of the courts.

Matty's record of 372 victories for the National League was to stand the test of time, but old Pete Alexander has surpassed it this season.

There never would be another Alf Shrubbs or Hannes Kolehmainen—then along came Paavo Nurmi.

Red Cagle is dashing around the gridirons where Red Grange left off. Hagen and Jones have combined to shove into the background the great golf achievements of Vardon, Taylor, Ball and the other Britons who were supposed to remain undisturbed on the pedestal of the royal and ancient game.

There may never be another Ruth or another Jones or another Nurmi but there is no proof of it.

It would add a novel touch to the year's drama to have Mary K. Browne make another try for golfing honors in a season marking the debut of that other famous tennis champion, Maury McLoughlin, in the men's amateur golf championship at Pebble Beach. Both of these California products were national tennis titleholders in the same years, 1912 and 1913, and each still has a substantial following interested in any achievements they may turn in.

The difficulty happens to be that Miss Browne is still outside the amateur pale, not for anything connected with golf, but because the powers-that-be considered her professional tennis tour of a few years ago "detrimental to the best interests" of the royal and ancient game. It would be a graceful gesture, one that would find favor in the sports world at large, for the U. S. G. A. to restore Miss Browne to good standing in time for the national tournament at Detroit.

Highland-Paltz Trolley Junked

Entire Equipment Must Be Removed Before November 15—Morrison Railway Supply Company of New York Filed High bid of $6,700.

One of the final chapters of the story of the defunct New Paltz, Highland and Poughkeepsie Traction Company, which formerly operated a trolley line between the Highland and New Paltz, was written Wednesday, when the Morrison Railway Supply Company of New York filed a high bid of $6,700 for the physical equipment of the company, the rails, ties, poles and wires, which never were removed from the right-of-way. The New Paltz Company ceased to operate one summer day about three years ago, when the state seized the road, locked up the trolley cars and blocked the tracks because the company was far behind in its payment of franchise taxes to the coffers of the state.

By November 15, the rails, poles, wires, fixtures, switches, cutouts, frogs and splices, cross-arms, braces, guy and other fixtures, must have been removed by the Morrison Company, according to specifications for the sale laid down by the Conservation Commission, which conducted the sale. If the last vestige of the electric railway are not gone by that time, the state will do the work and charge the expense to the purchaser.

Local People in Auto Accidents

An unidentified man was killed Wednesday afternoon on the state road near Valatie, and three persons, including two women, were injured in a collision on the state road near Coeymans. Local people figured in both accidents.

The fatality occurred six miles north of Valatie where the victim was hit by an automobile operated by Albert D. Powell, of 51 Cedar street, this city. According to a report received by Stat. Trooper A. E. Clough, the unidentified man was waiting about the road and stepped into the path of the approaching automobile.

Jordan in Crash

Those injured in the collision near Coeymans are Miss Mary Maslowicz, twenty-one, 180 Sixth avenue, North Troy; Abraham Jasser, thirty-two, 124 North Sixth avenue, New Brunswick, N. J., and his wife, Rebecca Glasser, twenty-eight. Miss Maslowicz suffered lacerations of the right eye, nose and head while Glasser suffered a broken arm, and his wife lacerations of the leg and a broken nose.

In a report of the accident received by the state police at Ravena, all of the injured were passengers in an automobile operated by Glasser. The machine collided with an automobile driven by Patrick Jordan, 36 Hasbrouck avenue, Kingston, in which Mrs. Jordan was a passenger. The Jordans were uninjured.

WEAR HEAVY COATS OF GREASE IN SWIMMING MARATHON

Toronto, Aug. 23 (P).—Martha Norelius, former world amateur champion, glided swiftly into the lead as 45 women distance swimmers dived from the starting line at 12:15 p. m. today in the annual ten-mile Wrigley Marathon in Lake Ontario. Ethel Hertle, defending champion, followed her by a few yards in the chase for the $15,000 prize money. At the crack of the starting gun, the 45 contestants flashed away from the float in one line but Miss Norelius, Olympic champion and holder of a dozen world records, quickly pulled into a lead of several yards over Miss Hertle at 100 yards.

Most of the contestants paraded to the float in light bathing suits and heavy coats of grease.

Several discarded the suits just before the start.

CENTRAL NEW YORK HAS SEVERE THUNDERSTORM

Syracuse, Aug. 23 (P).—Central New York experienced the severest thunderstorm of the season this morning. Many sections were in near darkness. Blinding rain accompanied heavy lightning and flooded streets and cellars. At Auburn lightning ignited gas in a manhole, explosion blowing the cover high into the air. Trolley cars and automobiles made their way slowly through the streets with headlights burning. Some power lines were disrupted temporarily. The weather bureau reported that 3 of an inch of rain fell within a five minute period at the start of the storm. This was the heaviest rainfall of the year.

PLAYHOUSE ACTORS GIVE A SHAW PLAY

(By F. Gardner Clough)

The actors at the Woodstock Playhouse tackled the most difficult play of the season at their little theatre when they gave a first performance on Thursday night of "Candida" by G. B. Shaw. "Candida" is announced for Friday and Saturday nights at the Playhouse, on the grounds of the Woodstock Country Club. There was a large audience for the opening night of the play.

Jane Meredith, who took the part of "Candida" was not the Jane Meredith who has appeared in previous Broadway plays at this same theatre. Probably her greatest victory in "Candida" was in her appearance for the part; it was a long distance from her role in "The Night Hawk," for an instance, to the Shaw role. But this actress essays many, and any parts.

The audience seemed especially pleased with the acting of Sara Hazen, the prim Miss Prosperine who is secretary for the Divine Morell; much applause was given George Tawde, who injected humour and burlesque talents in the role of Mr. Burgess. To David Elliot should go high laurels for his intelligent interpretation of the March Banks role.

Altogether, the cast performed very well in "Candida," a play calling for heavier work than has before been required of the group of actors who have given such excellent entertainment at the new little theatre. If there were a few lines forgotten the first night, it must be remembered that this group is putting on new plays each week, for which the Playhouse program allows scant time for preparation.

There were press representatives and visiting celebrities present Thursday night, as well as many Kingston people. Mr. David Reasoner was congratulated on the consistent and successful program being offered at his little theatre.

Snowden Rejects New Compromise

The Hague, Aug. 23 (P).—Philip Snowden, British chancellor of the Exchequer, this afternoon rejected the new compromise proposals offered him by the other four principal creditor powers to satisfy the British demands for an increased share of German reparations.

Hopes which had been revived that the conference might yet surmount all obstacles and finally agree on adoption of the Young plan were shattered by the action of the British chancellor.

Mr. Snowden, after considering verbal proposals presented by Premier Jaspars of Belgium last night and a further detailed offer made to him this morning, consulted his colleagues and decided that the offers represented little advance on those already rejected.

ATTACKS INTERPRETATION OF CHRISTIANITY BY BISHOP

New York, Aug. 23 (P).—Faced with prosecution for practicing medicine without a license in his now defunct Health Education Society, the Rev. Dr. James Empringham today asked Bishop William T. Manning of the Episcopal Church to relieve him of holy orders.

In a letter which he addressed to Bishop Manning from California, Dr. Empringham attacked Christianity as interpreted by the bishop as a preposterous lie and a curse and declared he lost faith in the creed of the church 15 years ago.

He also assailed Bishop Manning's stand against divorce and remarriage. Dr. Empringham recently was divorced in Reno and has remarried.

Injured in Saugerties Collision.
The cars driven by Luther Hendricks of this city and Ellen T. McCormick of Brooklyn, collided Thursday morning on Ulster avenue in Saugerties. Mrs. McCormick suffered a deep cut on her left elbow and on her right cheek from flying pieces of glass. Dixon had his right hand cut by the flying glass. Both cars were badly damaged.
